movie - research deluxe - with ullstein bild

„Roll sound! - sound rolling!“
Before the start of historical filming, many details often need to be clarified. This usually involves researching the historical background in numerous media of the German and international press landscape. Photos are needed for the development of costumes as well as background design such as film requisites, newspapers, pictures on walls, etc. We have text and image material for your purposes since the beginnings of photography and press coverage. „Die Unbeugsamen“, „Geheimnisvolle Orte“, „Die Bücherdiebin“, „Charité“ or „Babylon Berlin“ are impressive productions that have worked with our materials. Whether major cinema production, documentary, television series, reality show, quiz show: You have our full attention and support in developing your ideas. From historical background research to rights clearance for headlines, usage rights for photographs as well as audio content.
